

CONFESSION OF A MURDERER.

WINDSOR, Mo., March 4.—Frank Hopkirk, who, with Thomas Brownfield, was arrested on Sunday for the cold-blooded murder of the old man, John E. Wells, made a confession charging George Galloway with doing the killing, but admitting that he and Brownfield were also concerned in it. Hopkirk and Brownfield were taken to the Clinton County seat, and a large posse are searching for Galloway. Hopkirk is only 17 years old, and neither of the murderers is over 23. The motive for the killing of Wells has not yet been ascertained.

The New York Times

Published: March 5, 1884

Copyright © The New York Times